Danny Pawelek: MSBL World Series Hall of Fame 2018 Inductee

By Steve LaMontia

66 year old Danny Pawelek is possibly the most sought after pitcher in MSBL World Series history. This rubber-armed iron man continually throws for the upper-tier teams and has accumulated more rings than he has fingers and toes and shows no signs of stopping. "I have been fortunate by the sheer longevity of my playing time to see and do a lot of things," stated Pawelek. "Longevity lets you put up some numbers that really only your health can provide. I thank God for letting me use the talent that He gave me to enjoy." Danny began his MSBL career in 1993 in Utah, where he still resides, and attended his first MSBL World Series in 1994. Because of his dedication and work ethic, MSBL Founder and President Steve Sigler has inducted Danny into the 2018 class of the MSBL World Series Hall of Fame.

"The greatest thing I love about this game of baseball is that no matter if you're rich or poor, handsome or ugly, big or small, famous or not, when you get between those white lines everybody is on (continued on page 2)

By Tom Prendergast

This week 45+ / 60+ teams are playing and several managers have called the WS office seeking some clarification on the Shared Batter and Courtesy Runner rule. In an attempt to clarify these rules, the actual memo from the national office has been posted on page two. This memo spells out exactly what the rule is - and more importantly is not. Almost all of the special rules that we play with are designed to assist the manager in getting more guys into the game. Especially in our participation divisions where teams are required to get 14 players a minimum at-bat each game. These rules were not adopted to over turn games and allow teams that lose the game a backdoor way to achieve the win. And this particular rule, (in fact all three) are not protest able offenses. If the wrong runner or batter is discovered, then the remedy is to simply get the correct player into the game.

MEMO

To: 2018 MSBL/MABL World Series Team Managers
From: Steve Sigler

In reference to Courtesy Runners/Shared Runner:

Divisions: 18+/25+/35+/40+/45+/50+ - A/B Batting with Courtesy Runner Only

Divisions: 55+/60+/65+/70+/73+ - Shared Batter Only

Review of Shared Runner Rules – Modified

- All divisions 55+ and above will use the Shared Batting Position Rule
- The rule replaces both the A/B Batter and Courtesy Runner.
- The purpose of this rule is to enable more players to participate as the Manager uses two players to share one batting position in the offensive lineup and during the game the manager decides who bats each time the batting position comes up. This can be incorporated at the start of the game or can be added anytime during the game.
- Managers must notify opposing manager and opponent scorekeeper when players are being switched the first time in the game (Failure to do so results in a ruling of "batting out of order").
- A player in a shared lineup position may not be used in any other offensive position.
- When a player is used as a base runner in the Shared Position, he must bat the next time his position in the order comes to the plate. After that point, either of the Shared Runners may bat in this position.
- Should a player enter the game as a Shared Runner in the later innings and his batting position does not come up before the end of the game, no penalty is assessed.
- There is no limit to the number of shared lineup positions.
- For Central and Cactus Divisions, teams still must bat 14 in all Round Robin games.

equal terms and then the true nature of yourself comes out in your play." Danny also plays in every regional tournament within reach and has a couple of no-hitters to his credit along the way. One of them took place just recently in San Diego over Memorial Day. "I pulled a hamstring in the first game in my second at-bat at 8:30 in the morning and sat out the rest of Saturday and Sunday but I strapped on some KT Tape and a bandage and went out on Monday in the first game of the loser's bracket," explained Pawelek. "Amazingly I threw a seven-inning no-hit shutout and then I pitched the next game after that and won 11-2 against the Pirates. It was only the second no-hitter of my life and those are hard to come by." Unbelievably Danny only played freshman ball in high school and didn't play again until he joined MSBL in 1993. He has turned his passion into a craft and now teaches his techniques to kids. He has even turned himself into a head coach, as he has headed up Division II College teams. "I have been giving pitching lessons for the past 13 years. The weather can be a little iffy here in Utah so I have spent many hours sitting on a bucket in the tunnel of the indoor facility teaching them the proper techniques. I have also taught my two sons how to pitch and they were both drafted, one of them in the first round in 2005." With such an amazing resume on the 'bump', one of Danny's fondest memories comes from the batter's box. "One of my absolute coolest achievements that I treasure is hitting for the cycle twice in the same day in a double-header, and one of those games having 10 RBI here in Salt Lake City." Pitching is a team sport." Danny and his wife live in Springville, Utah located fifty-two miles south of Salt Lake City. Though that may sound rural, all roads to ball diamonds across the country begin in Springville. Nobody works harder or accomplishes more than Danny Pawelek. Don't be surprised if you are standing in a batter's box in Las Vegas, Palm Springs, San Diego, Arizona or Florida and there is this 6' 3" guy smiling at you from 60 feet away, because he just loves being there. I guarantee you that the same smile will be greeting you after the game, win, lose or draw.
