Vince Woods...In his Own Words

I have played for 24 years in the So Cal MSBL and also three in the LA MSBL. I have been coming to the World Series in Arizona for 27 years, since 1992. It all started while playing on another team, where I ran across a longtime friend and MSBL Hall of Famer, Darren Fleming, who played in the league the previous season and he introduced me to the MSBL. I have also played in the Las Vegas Open for eight years and the Las Vegas Kickoff Classic for three. I have been able to get to one Fall Classic throughout the years. We've had some pretty fair success as we have won rings at the World Series in 1998, 2007 and 2012 along with the Nike World Games in 1998. We also won the Las Vegas Open in 2016, 2018 and 2019. In my 'non-playing' time I am the District Representative for Masco Corp, who owns companies such as Delta & Peerless Faucets, Kilz Primer, Behr Paint, BrassCraft Supply Lines, Gas Connectors & Faucet Repair parts, and Brainerd and Liberty Hardware. Michelle and I have been married for 24 years and are proud of our four lovely children, Vincent Jr. 35, Brittany 33, Shaneka 33 and Shanae' 25. We also have seven beautiful Grandchildren. Some of my significant moments in my baseball life revolve around meeting people all over the country, being able to continue to play baseball an older age in life, and scoring from first base twice (continued on page 2)

MSBL WS REACHES A NEW MILESTONE at 32 YEARS!

70+ American Lehigh Valley Moondogs runner, John Trinwith scores a run before El Paso Sunkings catcher, Juan Valdez can catch the ball. The Moondogs won the game 14-8.

MSBL World Series Gets Underway With 50+ and 70+ Divisions Maryvale Complex Back In Play After $60 Million Upgrade to the Facility

By Tom Prendergast

Our 32nd World Series began yesterday with spectacular weather and a high cloudless sky. The kind of a day where Ernie Banks would say, "lets play two!" And several teams did just that. Twenty-five, 70+ teams and 40 plus 50+ teams took the field. In all, 45 games were played on day one of this years MSBL World Series tournament.

More than three decades ago, this tournament began with two age groups, 30+ and 40+, divided into National and American divisions. There wasn't any other tournament on the planet like this one. Well organized and played on major league fields, this event remains a unique experience and one that guys mark on their calendars a year ahead of time. We may momentarily forget a loved one's birthday or our wedding anniversary - but nobody misses the MSBL WS. It's become a fixture in our lives and allows us to continue playing the game we grew up with, along with our contemporaries. And if that wasn't enough every year we get to see and compete against other guys from across the nation who are just like us! Most of these friendships are 20 plus years old. Win or lose, the players that participate share the love of the game from an era where you spent the whole summer playing baseball. Welcome back in a Championship game on a base hit.

(Yes, that is a story in itself!) Getting inducted in the MSBL/MABL World Series Hall of Fame in 2015 has to be the highlight of my career. Playing in the MSBL, both in leagues and in tournaments, allows me to have an outlet to continue to do something that I truly love, in gives my family an outing on Sundays as they support me and my team and all of the friendships I have made has blessed me with an extended family for years to come.

Official 2019 MSBL WS Scorebook

Every team manager received the official MSBL WS scorebook (complete with the rules inside) when they checked in to pick up their equipment bag. Also inside the scorebook are lineup cards that can be exchanged with the other teams manager before the game.

50+ Bay Area Giants, 2nd baseman, David Titchenal makes it look easy on this play!

50+ Cactus Madison Blues batter, Mark Vandemboch did a two step in avoiding the ball.

70+ American Lehigh Valley Moondogs 3rd base coach, Frank Johns (left) waves base runner, John Trinwith around the bag and betting he will beat the throw home. He did!

70+ American San Antonio Broncos batter, John Cantu gets a good look at this fastball and drills it into left center field for a base hit.

50+ Cactus Diamond Dream Mustangs runner, Robert Maher gets back to the bag before 1st baseman, Ron Smith catches the baseball.

50+ Cactus Red Deer Legends pitcher, Curtis Daniels seems to defy gravity with his prolonged "leg in the air" follow through yesterday

50+ Cactus Cal Vets pitcher, Carlos Olivera delivers a pitch to the plate during his teams game on Tempe 6 against the Mustangs.
