By Steve Lamontia
MSBL Communications Director I have been fortunate enough to be involved the last four years with MSBL. I joined a club run by Joel Weinstein called the New England Red Sox in 2016

for 65 year olds. 2019 is also my fourth year for World Series and I also attended the Las Vegas Kickoff Classic last year for 65 and 70. Off the field I am a corporation officer for Fortune 500 companies and am proud of my four children ages 49, 42, 41 and 38, three boys and a girl. They are all college educated and all of my sons played division 1AA football. One of my sons played division 1 baseball and my other sons are actively involved in high school athletics as coaches and one as an athletic director. After I played division 1 college baseball I didn't play again for 42 years. But since my return to baseball in 2013 I have been actively involved in tournament baseball as a player and manager and have had the privilege of being part of a World Series winner in the 60 age group as a player and as a manager. Our teams have been highly successful in the 65 age group as well. I am a part of the Clearwater Florida Men's Senior Baseball League during the year and one of my favorite memories from

55+ Central Division Champions - Team Victory

55+ Cactus Division Champions - Chicago North Cubs

55+ Cactus Consolation Champions - Dallas Rangers

the World Series was pitching my team into the playoffs in Maryvale stadium and having the manager put a cream pie in my face. Also during the same game, I fell flat on my face delivering a pitch and with my face in the dirt I heard the home plate umpire say 'strike three'! It was quite embarrassing. There is nothing like playing MSBL baseball. It is similar to playing collegiate sports in meeting and bonding with great people.
