WORLD SERIES OFFICE NUMBER (480) 858-7515

TUESDAY OCTOBER 20th, 2020

If you think you have coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19) and need a test, contact the NextCare Urgent Care center in Tempe. It's located at 914 N Scottsdale Rd (which is located at N Scottsdale and E Curry Rd).

While this is advertised as a walk-in clinic, it's a smart move to make an appointment online ahead of time.

There are two different types of tests – Diagnostic tests and Antibody tests.

A diagnostic test can show if you have an active coronavirus infection and should take steps to quarantine or isolate yourself from others. An antibody test looks for antibodies that are made by your immune system in response to a threat, such as a specific virus. This clinic offers rapid antibody testing, which will allow you to get your results back in an hour. It's unknown what the cost is for the test, since it's set up to go through your insurance provider. If any player on the team is unsure of their status regarding the virus, getting this test might make sense.

MSBL WS Field Monitors Acting As Social Distancing Coordinators Keeping Your Mask On Makes Sense When You Can - Especially Off The Field

By Tom Prendergast

As the week continues, more and more players are interacting both on and off the field. So it's important to remain vigilant and practice social distancing whenever possible, just as an extra added precaution. It's also a smart move to keep wearing your mask at all times. And keep in mind when your team plays at the different complexes, not all of them have the same rules and regulations. Most notably the Goodyear Complex, which restricts entry by players to 35 minutes before the game is scheduled to begin. Also, after every game, all participants must leave the field (even if you have a DH) and return. This allows our complex supervisor to clean and disinfect the dugouts between games. Both Salt River and Goodyear complexes are home to the instructional leagues and these players are in the "bubble", as required by Major League Baseball. Approaching these players at the field and requesting an autograph or picture could put these players at risk. So please avoid them at all costs.

A couple reminders regarding our special MSBL playing rules for A/B batters and Shared Batter position. These were designed to allow the manager the opportunity to get more guys into the game, while remaining as competitive as possible in an attempt to give his club the best opportunity to win the game. The number of A/B batters is up to each manager and it's his responsibility to notify the opposing manager when line ups are exchanged. If there's an issue with an A/B batter the Shared Batter position, these cannot be protested. The penalty is the same as batting out of turn. In the event of the wrong runner, put the correct one on base.

Goodyear Sports Complex Field Information

Teams will be allowed into the complex 35 minutes prior to the start of the game
Parking will be allowed on the street next to the fields - not in the parking lot
If your team plays a DH - every player must leave and re-enter after the game
