35+ Cactus Division Champions - California Reds

35+ Cactus Championship Game - California Reds 9 - Tucson Longhorns 8

In an exciting extra inning game, the California Reds defeated the Tucson Longhorns 9-8 at Tempe Diablo Stadium to capture the 35+ Cactus Championship trophy. After the Longhorns tied the score in the bottom of the ninth with two runs, the Reds came back and scored the game winner in the top of the tenth.

70+ National Championship Game - LA Athletics 5 - USA Volkers MBI 4

The LA Athletics once again ended up in the winners circle with a 5-4 victory over the USA Volkers in an unexpectedly close final. After going 4-1 in pool play, these two teams met in the championship game yesterday at Fitch park.

70+ American Championship Game - Chicago North TSP 10 - SD Mudcats 6

The Chicago North TSP Fire ended a dry spell with a resounding 10-6 win over the San Diego Mudcats yesterday morning. The surprising upstart San Diego team, who went winless in pool play came alive in the playoffs and but couldn't outscore the Fire on Saturday.

70+ Central Championship Game - Colorado Cardinals 9 - Kansas City A's 1

The Colorado Cardinals continued their dominance in this division with a convincing 9-1 win over the new kids on the block, Jerry Weaver's, Kansas City A's. The first year team played well all week, but when it came time to face the mighty Cardinals, the A's couldn't score any runs. Hats off to the Colorado Cardinals who went undefeated for the tournament.

Note: Hardball on line will be featuring more complete game summaries later in the week.

MSBL WS Tie Breaker (Head to head then followed by Least Runs Allowed)

By Tom Prendergast

If two or more teams end in a tie and all the teams in the division played each other, the first tie breaker would be head to head competition. If no head to head play was involved or head to head cannot decide the tiebreaker, then least runs allowed will be used.

For example, three teams end up 4-2. Team A beat team B, team B beat team C and team C beat team A. In this case head to head can't be used because they all beat each other. Same with the wildcard seeding. Least runs allowed will be used to determine playoff seeding's.
