202 Teams Participated In This Years MSBL World Series Tournament
MSBL National Office Is Grateful For All The Kind Emails They Received
By Tom Prendergast

Once in a lifetime seems to be enough for a Pandemic that's disrupted everyone's regular routine, which for a lot of us includes playing adult baseball. And if you were one of those guys who just wanted to play baseball in the worst way this year, well then consider yourself lucky! OK, so we had to jump through some hoops to play ball this year - no big deal. At the end of the day all of the games got played, on the great fields we are used to and the weather was simply fantastic. That doesn't seem so bad compared to the alternative - which would have been NOT playing. Championship's were won and lost, hitting streaks continued, and dominating pitchers were still mowing down hitters and once again we had the opportunity to spend a week or two in an amazing baseball atmosphere. For a lot of guys my age, the only thing that comes close to this experience was Spring Break. As soon as most of us get home this year, we are circling next years dates on the calendar. Seeing old friends and getting to play competitive baseball is like heaven to us. Thank you for attending and see you next year!

A Statement from MSBL / MABL President & Founder - Steve Sigler

As we wrap up our 33rd MSBL World Series, I feel compelled to write a most sincere thank you to all 202 team managers and 4000 players. With all the uncertainty that surrounded each and every day for months, to accomplish what we have, is truly amazing! The sportsmanship and camaraderie displayed this year was unparalleled and befitting in these unrepresented times.

We are looking upwards of 380 teams for the 2021 MSBL / MABL WS and thanks again to the hundreds of league presidents who preserved by having their 2020 seasons.

Thanks again and looking forward to seeing many of you in Palm Springs and Las Vegas next year.

Steve Sigler
