That's All Folks! 2021 MSBL World Series Comes To An End

The Colorado Buffaloes won the 45+ Desert championship game 9-2 over the Cal Vets.

A Statement from MSBL / MABL President & Founder - Steve Sigler

As we wrap up our 34th MSBL World Series, I feel compelled to write a most sincere thank you to all 315 team managers and 5500 players, who attended this years tournament. Just like last year, the sportsmanship and camaraderie displayed was unparalleled and uplifting in these most uncertain times. We have been fortunate to be able to host our event for a second year in a row in spite of the challenges this pandemic has presented to all of our leagues across the country. All of our local League Presidents have done an amazing job.

Next year will be our 35th anniversary of the MSBL / MABL WS in Arizona. We are planning on getting back to a more normal tournament, in which we are hoping to reinstate the very popular, WS Welcome Bar B Que at Tempe Diablo Stadium.

Thanks again and we are looking forward to seeing many of you next year in Palm Springs.

Inaugural 75+ Division Championship Game Similar In Many Ways to the First MSBL WS Held in 1988

By AJ Ingolia

The Sacramento Solons eked out a one run victory over the San Antonio Broncos Saturday in the inaugural MSBL 75+ World Series. This was especially poignant to co-manager Lanny Ropke who played and managed the very first MSBL championship team in MSBL's inaugural World Series in 1988. Lanny, and Co- manager Irv Scott who effectively and adroitly handled the day to day on field decisions, started putting this team together last February and practiced every week up to the start of this years World Series. Irv did a superb of building lineups and setting the defense, knowing just when to make the right changes and substitutions said Lanny.

The real hero story goes to pitcher Jim Allan. He was Told last January after a back operation by his doctor, "You will never play baseball again". Wrong thing to say to Jimmy, he worked 10 months to prove him wrong, and prove him wrong he did! Jim went the entire 13 innings, in pain after the 7th. We offered to sit him down, his comment was "no way, this is my game and I am finishing it" and he did! The team chose him as its MVP. The team worked all week as a finely tuned squad.

All tied up after nine innings. Finally in the last inning Norm Losk led off with a double over the Right Fielders head. Dave Sutherland executed a bunt to move him to third. Next Hiro Tarumi hit a walk of single to score Norm with the winning Run. It was a close tight knit 3-1/2 hour game, always in doubt. It could have gone either way. The Broncos are a tough team but a fine bunch of gentlemen.

Other contributors were Denny Brown, 3 for 6, with an RBI, and a run scored. Lanny Ropke went 3 for 5, with 2 rbi's and a run scored. Ron Williams, 5 for 5, with 2 doubles and rbi and a run scored. Irv Scott 2 for , with an rbi. Jim Lortz, 2 for 5 with a run scored. Harry Hart, 3 for 5, with a run scored and Norm Losk, 2 for 4, with a double, a sacrifice bunt, and scored the winning run.
