Father & Son Playoffs Today As 70's Play In The Finals!

Kurt Knop - First MSBL Tournament Director (1988 - 1997)

The Early Years of the MSBL World Series Got By Without A Lot Of Technology
By Tom Prendergast

The first newsletter that was published was printed on legal paper and included game scores with the winning and losing pitcher - along with a box score for every game. Tournament director, Kurt Knop (a real baseball purist) spent hours compiling the days games and typed it up on his type writer. Then he would take the original to Kinko's and they would run off a couple hundred copies, which would be delivered to the tournament hotels and left on the front desk. Kurt wasn't old enough to play in the tournament (he was only 27), so instead he ran it. Cool, calm and collected, he was guided by his love for the game and a basic fairness that he felt every team deserved. During his ten years as the director, the tournament grew at a remarkable pace. Kurt's an inaugural member of the MSBL Hall of Fame.
