Dan Hendrickson, MABL of So Wisconsin 2022 MSBL Hall of Fame Inductee

By Steve LaMontia, Director of Communications 63-year-old Dan Hendrickson is currently the league treasurer and field coordinator for the successful MABL of Southern Wisconsin, located in Madison.

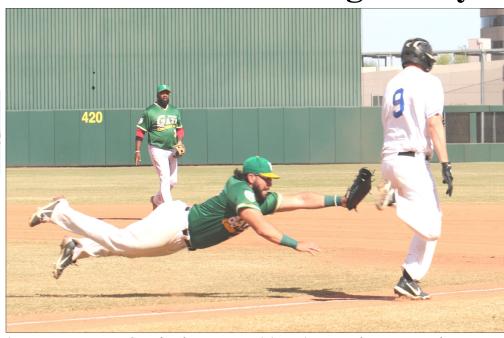

Since beginning his league involvement in 1995 Dan has enjoyed taking part in most every office within the league, as well as serving as a board member, and continues to play and manage in the league while attending the MSBL World Series and the Las Vegas Kickoff Classic on a regular basis. The 2020 MSBL Honor Roll recipient is now honored by being inducted into the 2022 class of the MSBL National Hall of Fame by MSBL Founder and President Steve Sigler. "I have been on the board of MABL of Southern Wisconsin for 25 years and have also been league secretary, umpire coordinator, and division vice president in the past," stated Hendrickson. "I want to thank Steve Sigler and the National MSBL for their valuable guidance and for the opportunity for adults to play a kid's game. This is quite an honor and great for our local league to be recognized nationally." Dan and his wife live in Verona, Wisconsin and have been married for 42 years and share three daughters. He has also been a steady attendee at the MSBL World Series in Arizona. "I have also (continued on page 2)

MSBL WS Championship Trophy - Worth It's Weight In Gold!

No Matter What Age, Winning Never Gets Old - While Losing Remains Painful! By Tom Prendergast

Without a doubt, one of the best perks of my job is handing out the championship trophy to the winning team. And it doesn't matter if the players are in their 30's or in their 70's - it's just as rewarding at any age. With the anticipation building as the final 3 outs get recorded, there's a buzz in the dugout. Jubilation erupts as the last out gets made and the players race onto the field to congratulate their teammates. Boy seeing that, it just give you goosebumps. But one look at the opponents dugout and you'd think somebody had died! Heads down and players avoiding eye contact with one another, which only last momentarily. Reality quickly sets is that getting to the championship game was an accomplishment and there's always next year. After the high fives and the traditional (and good sportsmanship) handshake, the team lines up for a championship photo and then it off to see Gene Erickson for that WS ring.

participated in the Las Vegas Kickoff Classic. I have played in the 50+, 55+, and 60+ divisions in national tournaments. I am currently the player/manager of the Bears in the 52+ division of the Southern Wisconsin MABL and we won it in 2019. I also play in the Milwaukee-Rock league. My dance card gets pretty full!" Dan isn't the traditional player who missed the baseball days of high school or college and found the game once again. "I didn't play in high school or college. I picked up the game at 33 after not playing since Little League. I realize now just how much I missed it." This pitcher, infielder, and outfielder pharmacist plays for the 45+ Rangers and 52+ Bears in Southern Wisconsin and for the 55+ Expos in Milwaukee, while attending to his a administrative duties in the league. But his journey hasn't been a solo one. "I have played alongside Terry Halena, Dave Bayer, and Jeff Janda for the past 30 years. We are charter members of Madison area senior baseball and still playing together. I also need to thank MSBL Man of the Year Dave Bayer and new MSBL Hall of Famer Sean Michael Dargan for helping along this journey." Are there any special moments from your league days? "Winning the 52+ Southern Wisconsin league championship is an easy highlight. Being their player/ manager was special. Over all, one cumulative special moment from our league is that all 400 players are friends who love baseball. The friendships made here in Wisconsin far exceed an occasional championship or ring. We really enjoy coming to the ball yard and having a good time with good friends."
