Father & Son National Team Mexico pitcher, Arturo Cota delivers a pitch to the plate during his teams 4-3, walk-off win over TABU in the championship game at Tempe Diablo Stadium.

Extremely Exciting (and Entertaining) Father & Son Championships!

Both Team Mexico & the Rhode Island Cardinals Pull Off Come From Behind Wins
By Tom Prendergast

There's nothing quite like a come from behind victory, especially in a championship game and a walk off win is a bonus. That's what happened yesterday at Tempe Diablo Stadium. The morning game featured the Father & Son National division matchup between the Sacramento Braves versus the Rhode Island Cardinals. The Cardinals took the early lead but the Braves battled back and evened the score in the top of the eighth inning. In the bottom half, with two outs and a runner on third, the Cardinals got a break with a broken bat, seeing eye single, from Victor Narvez (a dad), that landed between the third baseman and short stop. The Braves threatened in the ninth but couldn't get the tying run across.

The Central game was even more dramatic between Tabu and Team Mexico. Tied in the ninth, TABU went ahead 3-2 on a passed ball that the catcher couldn't come up with. Fast forward to the bottom of the ninth with runners on first and second, one out. Team Mexico batter (and father), Felipe Hernandez, belted a 2-1 slider, from TABU hurler, Jordan Peterson into the left center field gap to drive in both runs. Pandemonium broke out as the Team Mexico players ran onto the field to celebrate the win. Talk about the "thrill of victory and the agony of defeat!" This game captured that statement in its entirety! And Team Mexico's 200 plus fans went wild, waving, cheering, hooting and hollering. They got what they wanted. What an exciting day at the ballpark!
