The Final Day Of The 2024 MSBL World Series Is One Of The Most Exciting!

60+ Boston Wolfpack - Down 14-1 Come Roaring Back With A Walk Off Base On Ball Win!
By Tom Prendergast

The Boston Wolfpack pulled off one of the most unlikely comeback championship game wins, with a stunning, come from behind 15-14 win, over the Tri Valley Tribute. Down 14-1 early, the Wolfpack just kept chipping away. One run in the sixth, 3 runs in the seventh, and 4 runs in the eighth inning, cut the deficit to 5, going into the 9th. Relief pitcher, Joe Whitmer came in the game in the second inning and really did an outstanding job, shutting down the Tribute hitters. The Wolfpack literally saved the best for last, scoring 6 runs in the final frame, with a base on balls, walk off walk in the bottom of the ninth. For his efforts, Whitmer was the MVP of the game.

In all, 7 championship games were played on Sunday, the final day of the tournament. So our 37th World Series tournament concludes on a high note. Great weather, competitive games, terrific fields and the opportunity to renew old acquaintances and see friends and foes alike! In a year in which the MSBL World Series reached the 10,000 team mark, it goes without saying that 200,000 players can't be wrong. The MSBL WS is still going strong!
